FLAME OF FREEDOM COMES TO EVERGREEN

The Flame of Freedom, honoring all of our armed service branches and all those who served was originally located outside the Duval County Courthouse. A new courthouse was completed in 2012. City fathers decided a new home was needed for the Flame. Given Evergreen Cemetery is the final resting place of Veterans of all branches of the United States Military, five Florida Governors and ten Jacksonville Mayors, Evergreen's Trustees proposed to the city that the Flame's new home be at Evergreen. The move has been completed and the refurbishing of the monument is underway.

A DEDICATION CEREMONY WILL BE HELD AT A LATER DATE.
