Daniel David Sikes, Jr. (Dec.7, 1929 – Dec. 20, 1987) is among the famous former residents buried in Evergreen. Sikes was born in Wildwood, Florida. Although he had a law degree from the University of Florida and was known as the "golfing lawyer", he never actually practiced law. He won the 1958 U.S. Amateur Public Links championship while in law school. He turned pro in 1960 and won six times on the PGA Tour. He played on the 1969 Ryder Cup team. He also won three times on the Senior PGA Tour. He died in Jacksonville, Florida at the age of 58.

Evergreen has property for sale that allows UPRIGHT MONUMENTS. We have a very attractive display of monuments just south of our office. We invite you to take a walk around the circle and view the diversity of monuments and markers. Kelly or Judy will be happy to help you make a selection.

August 19th is Senior Citizens Day

In his Presidential Proclamation in 1988, President Ronald Reagan said "For all they have achieved throughout life and for all they continue to accomplish, we owe older citizens our thanks and a heartfelt salute. We can best demonstrate our gratitude and esteem by making sure that our communities are good places in which to mature and grow older."
