Daniel David Sikes, Jr. (Dec.7, 1929 – Dec. 20, 1987) is among the famous former residents buried in Evergreen. Sikes was born in Wildwood, Florida. Although he had a law degree from the University of Florida and was known as the "golfing lawyer", he never actually practiced law. He won the 1958 U.S. Amateur Public Links championship while in law school. He turned pro in 1960 and won six times on the PGA Tour. He played on the 1969 Ryder Cup team. He also won three times on the Senior PGA Tour. He died in Jacksonville, Florida at the age of 58.

WE NEED YOUR HELP.

Evergreen Cemetery is dedicated to providing a dignified and beautifully maintained place of remembrance for all. Visitors are asked to help in this effort by following the long standing Cemetery Rules and Regulations. Guidelines for grave decorations and a full list of the Rules and Regulations are always available at the Office.

MAINTENANCE AND SERVICE DEPTS. "EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH"

The Employee of the Month is chosen by the Dept. Supervisors. They rate the employees based on effort, coachability, attitude, service plus one, appearance, awareness, equipment care, and accountability.

In a close contest, Raymond Hudson was chosen the "Employee of the Month" for June. He has worked for Evergreen since 10/06/1997. NICE JOB !!

August 19th is Senior Citizens Day

In his Presidential Proclamation in 1988, President Ronald Reagan said 'For all they have achieved throughout life and for all they continue to accomplish, we owe older citizens our thanks and a heartfelt salute. We can best demonstrate our gratitude and esteem by making sure that our communities are good places in which to mature and grow older.'
